

G.PULLA REDDY COLLEGE OF PHARMACY, HYDERABAD

International symposium on medication therapy management (ISMTM-2020)

Reconceptualising patient care

A Two day International symposium on Medication therapy Management (ISMTM) was conducted on 2nd and 3rd Jan 2021 by Climed international in collaboration with IPA, G.Pulla Reddy College of pharmacy and 50 more pharmacy colleges in India. Many national and international speakers were drawn from various organisations and hospitals. The symposium was inaugurated by Prof.Dr. B. Suresh, President, PCI, India. Topics such as Medication therapy management on respiratory diseases, diabetes, and critical care medicines etc., were deliberated by eminent speakers. Prof.Dr.P.K.Lakshmi from department of pharmacy practice delivered on "Assessment and optimisation of adherence in diabetes. She also chaired two sessions in the symposium. Ms.Gouhar sultana and Ms. Archana, Asst. Professors of the department of pharmacy practice acted as evaluators for the oral and poster presentation. The program ended with prize distribution ceremony for the award of best oral /poster presentations and quiz program conducted by Climed international private limited.

More than 700 hundred students & faculty participated the symposium. Certificates were issued to the registered participants. Vote of thanks was presented by Dr.Ajit Singh, CEO, Climed international.

